

Dream Quotations

"I remember about the rabbits, George."

"The hell with the rabbits. That's all you can ever remember is them rabbits."
(1.18-19)

God a'mighty, if I was alone I could live so easy. I could go get a job an' work, n' no trouble. No mess at all

Someday—we're gonna get the jack together and we're gonna have a little house and a couple of acres an' a cow and some pigs and—"

"An' live off the fatta the lan', and how thick the cream is on the milk like you can hardly cut it.

Red, blue and green rabbits. Millions of them

Had a strawberry patch. Had a alfalfa patch

"Just like heaven. Ever'body wants a little piece of lan'. I read plenty of books out here. Nobody never gets to heaven, and nobody gets no land.

I tell ya, I tell ya a guy gets too lonely an' he gets sick."

"George's voice became deeper. He repeated his words rhythmically as though he had said them many times before.

"Lennie begged, "Le's do it now. Le's get that place now."

"Sure right now. I gotta. We gotta.

At about 10 o'clock in the morning the sun threw a bright dust-laden bar through one of the side windows and in and out of the beam flies shot like rushing stars."

"Crooks stood up from his bunk and faced her. "I had enough," he said coldly. "You got no rights comin' in a colored man's room.

Crooks had reduced himself to nothing. There was no personality, no ego--nothing to arouse either like or dislike

A silent head and beak lanced down and plucked it out by the head, and the beak swallowed the little snake while its tail waved frantically."

"they looked at one another, amazed. this thing they had never really believed in was coming true."

Flopping like a fish

Right in the back of the head, and the plannings and the discontent and the ache for attention were all gone from her face. She was pretty and simple, and her face was sweet and young.
