

Science Technician – Part Time

Three days per week - working Wednesday and two other days (options to be discussed at interview)

22½ hours per week, term time only plus INSET days (36 weeks per year) and Whole School Open Day (a Saturday in October)

Required to start 6 January 2025

Actual Salary £13,536 per annum
(annualised over the year)

We are looking to appoint an able, skilled and versatile Science Technician to join our small team of technicians who support the Science Teachers across the three Sciences, including GCSE and A level preparation. Previous experience in a similar role is essential.

We are looking for someone who:

- Has the expertise necessary to fulfil the role
- Has an organised, flexible approach to all work undertaken
- Able to prioritise their work load and respond positively to change
- A 'can do' person who works positively and collaboratively with colleagues
- Never stops looking for ways to improve
- Will have excellent attention to detail and quality
- Possesses strong communication skills

Hours of work:

- Three days a week 8.15am - 4.15pm (22½ hours per week – 30 minute lunch break)
- Term time only, including 5 INSET days (36 weeks per year) and Whole School Open Day (a Saturday in October)

We can offer you:

- A supportive and friendly environment, where children are well behaved and willing to learn
- An enthusiastic, friendly and dedicated Science team
- A supportive management team committed to improving standards
- A school that is committed to the wellbeing of all staff
- Our commitment to your professional development

In your supporting statement, please include the following points:

1. Your relevant experience to date
2. Why you wish to work at Farringtons School
3. What you can bring to the role

The closing date for applications is Sunday 1 December 2024 Interviews to be held week commencing Monday 9 December 2024

The school reserves the right to appoint before the closing date, so early applications are advised.
